

Classroom Supplies

Parents are encouraged to contribute supplies to high school classrooms and will receive volunteer credit hours for the donations. Make sure to save receipts and submit them with a monthly volunteer hours form. Thank you for your support of our students and classrooms.

Jill Massey, NBCT
English Teacher

I would appreciate any of the following items:

- ❖ Kleenex
- ❖ Lysol/Clorox wipes
- ❖ Paper Towels
- ❖ Notecards
- ❖ Loose-leaf College-ruled Notebook Paper
- ❖ Dry Erase Markers
- ❖ Kleenex
- ❖ Lysol/Clorox wipes
- ❖ Band-Aids
- ❖ Utility towels
- ❖ Sidewalk chalk
- ❖ Fun drama props (hats, wigs, crowns, etc.)
- ❖ Highlighters
- ❖ Kleenex
- ❖ Lysol/Clorox wipes

In addition, if you have a senior taking English with me (all levels), below are items they will need for my class:

- ❖ Spiral Notebook or Journal
- ❖ Three-ring Binder
- ❖ College-ruled Notebook Paper
- ❖ Red or Green Editing Pens
- ❖ Blue or Black Writing Pens
- ❖ Pencils
- ❖ A laptop or tablet is useful but not required

Books for English IV: Macbeth (in textbook) by William Shakespeare, A Midsummer Night's Dream by William Shakespeare, Frankenstein by Mary Shelley (1832 edition, 24 Chapters)

Books for English IVH: Shakespeare TBD, Frankenstein by Mary Shelley (1832 edition, 24 Chapters), Brave New World by Aldous Huxley, independent novels TBD

AP Semester One: Shakespeare TBD, Frankenstein by Mary Shelley (1832 edition, 24 Chapters), Wuthering Heights by Emily Brontë or Jane Eyre by Charlotte Brontë; The Importance of Being Earnest by Oscar Wilde; A Prayer for Owen Meany by John Irving

AP Semester Two: Brave New World by Aldous Huxley, The Handmaid's Tale by Margaret Atwood (or 1984 by George Orwell), Beloved by Toni Morrison, Mudbound by Hillary Jordan; The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini, A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams